THE FANAL

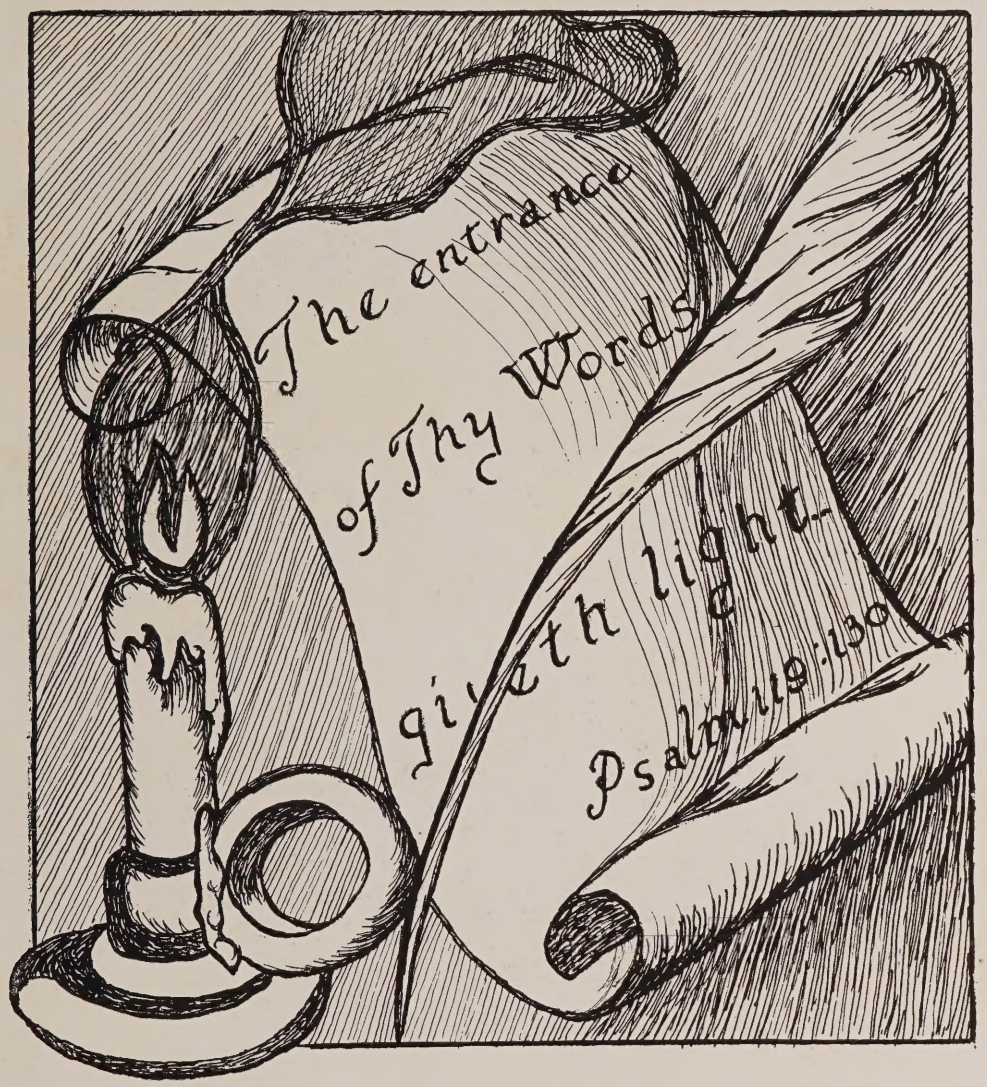
NAT THOMPSON . . . . . Editor

ELMER BERRY . . Business Manager

Dedication . . .

To MRS. CHARLES H. STEVENS, Dean of Women, and head of the English Department, the staff fondly dedicates this 1949 edition of THE FANAL. Her kindness and thoughtfulness have served as an inspiration to each student who has had the privilege of coming under her influence and of being guided by the constant, consistent, and convincing testimony of a consecrated life.

Administration . . .



—it giveth understanding

Our President . . .

The influence of DR. STEVENS in the lives of the students can never be fully known. He has unselfishly devoted his time and energy to the strengthening of the character and faith of each student. As a friend and as an example, he is unsurpassed.

We shall always remember DR. CHARLES H. STEVENS, our president, for his marvelous and inspiring chapel talks on practical Christian living and ever be grateful for the influence that he has had in our lives. We shall not forget his oft repeated motto, "That in all things He might have the preeminence."

New Building

Piedmont Bible Schools was conceived and born out of an urgent need for a school that attempts to impart knowledge and teach a way of life that the New Testament upholds. As the Lord has blessed us spiritually, He also has multiplied our material blessings a hundredfold.

In the fall of 1948 the doors of the John M. Deeds Hall were open to a steady stream of students. It is a two-story brick building with the second story housing twenty-five girls. On the first floor is the library, faculty offices, and class rooms. A modern and well-equipped kitchen and cafeteria with a seating capacity for one hundred and fifty occupies the basement.

This new building is named in the honor of John M. Deeds, of Hinton, West Virginia. One of the members of the Board of Trustees, his contributions have been an inspiration to all and a constant reminder of our many friends who have made Piedmont not just a dream but a reality.

One of the greatest sources of blessing on the campus has been the Foreign Missions Fellowship. This group, active in presenting its cause, keeps the missionary vision before the students. Those who are purposing to go to the foreign field as well as those who are praying concerning God's will for them and the part they are to have in spreading the Gospel meet regularly for mission study and prayer. "PRAY YE THEREFORE THE LORD OF HARVEST THAT HE WILL SEND FORTH LABOURERS INTO HIS HARVEST."

Foreign Missions Fellowship

Director.....Ponzi Pennington

Pianist.....Jeanne Hartz

With the addition of Mr. Ponzi Pennington to the teaching force, the music department took on new life. The newly organized chorus testify to the cultural and spiritual development through the ministry of music on the campus. Highlights of the year were the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs and series of trips to various churches in this area during the spring. "He has put a new song in our mouths—and with our song we will praise Him."

"The Happy Gospel Hour" presented by Salem Baptist church over a local radio station each Sunday morning has proved to be a blessing and a means of service for those who take part. The music is under the direction of Mr. Ponzi Pennington, who has capably presented the P. B. S. vocal ensemble in the signing of gospel hymns. Dr. Charles H. Stevens, who is the pastor of Salem Baptist church as well as the president of Piedmont Bible Schools, brings the brief and vital inspirational message.

The 1948-1949 term brought a variety of chapel services. Every other week on Thursday the students assembled and witnessed anything from the dignity of the class officers to the "happy-go-lucky" comedy of the Arkansas travelers. The student body president also conducts the necessary business meetings. These services, through variety and informality, have helped to give the students a well-balanced school life.
